

St John the Evangelist, Old Coulsdon

Children and Families Minister – part time (24 hours per week)

St John's is an evangelical parish church in a suburban setting south of Croydon, with a growing number of young families, and a committed core of older members.

We are looking for an enthusiastic follower of Jesus who has sufficient experience to help us develop our work with children and parents, encouraging and equipping parents to be able to nurture their children in the Christian faith, from baptism onwards. The focus of the work on Sundays includes:

- leading our children's group that takes place during the parish communion
- leading worship at the family service on alternate Sundays and building positive relationships with the families that attend
- taking a turn at leading and speaking at our monthly All-Age service to which our affiliated Scout group comes

We have enthusiastic and willing volunteers who will work with you, and we will provide opportunities and funding for further training as the job requires.

Annual salary: £17,500 (full-time equivalent £25,521)
